

CuisinArt Resort & Spa Receives World's Best Hotel Service Accolade from Travel + Leisure Magazine

Rendezvous Bay, Anguilla – June 1, 2009 – Recognized for providing one of the highest service standards in the Caribbean, CuisinArt Resort & Spa received a “World’s Best Hotel Service” accolade in the June 2009 issue of Travel + Leisure magazine. Voted number two in the Caribbean region by Travel + Leisure readers, the prestigious “World’s Best Hotel Service” rankings are compiled by the publication, based on votes by readers who participate in the magazine’s annual “World’s Best” survey.

“CuisinArt Resort & Spa is thrilled and honored to be included in Travel + Leisure’s “World’s Best Service” category, especially since it’s decided on by the readers,” said General Manager Stephane Zaharia. “And to be recognized as number two in the Caribbean is truly rewarding for our resort family, who go above and beyond to provide stellar levels of service to our guests.”

This is the first time CuisinArt Resort & Spa has received a “World’s Best Hotel Service” accolade and it is the only resort in Anguilla to make the 2009 list. The resort was also named one of the top five Caribbean resorts in the Caribbean, Bermuda & Bahamas category of “Travel + Leisure’s 500: The World’s Best Hotels 2009.”

Featuring a newly expanded 27,000 sq. ft. Venus Spa and fitness center, award-winning restaurants that use fresh ingredients from the on-premise hydroponic farm, luxurious resort amenities, private villas and recreational activities, CuisinArt Resort & Spa provides a unique Caribbean experience and offers guests countless ways to relax and rejuvenate.

CuisinArt Resort & Spa, a member of The Leading Small Hotels of the World, is a five-star, award-winning resort on the unspoiled Caribbean island of Anguilla. Nestled along Rendezvous Bay, the resort offers 93 luxurious accommodations on pristine beachfront property. The unique architecture of the whitewashed villas is inspired by the Greek island of Mykonos and creates a visually stunning contrast against the sparkling turquoise waters and exquisite white sand beach. With the recently expanded world-class Venus Spa, inspired cuisine including the exclusive Chef’s Table and Wine Cellar, breathtaking views, and the world’s first and only resort-based hydroponic farm, CuisinArt Resort & Spa provides an unrivaled Caribbean experience.
